

2025 COMMUNITY PROFILE

The City of Weyburn and RM of Weyburn No. 67 are located on traditional lands, referred to as Treaty 4 Territory.

Treaty 4 territory is part of the original lands of the Nehiyawak (Cree), Nahkawe (Saulteaux), and Nakota and homeland of the Metis, Dakota and Lakota.

When Canada (British Crown) wanted to access the land in what is now western Canada, they negotiated the Numbered Treaties 1 - 11 with First Nations who held their traditional land on the prairies. The Nehiyawak, Nahkawe, and Nakota Nations had traditional lands in what is now Treaty 4 territory. There, when Canada (British Crown) wanted to access the lands in this area, they had to make treaty with Nehiyawak, Nahkawe, and Nakota Nations.

The Dakota, Lakota and Metis did not have traditional lands in this area when Treaty 4 was made, however, a number of Dakota, Lakota and Metis people were settled on these lands prior to and at the time Treaty 4 was made September 15, 1874, therefore, we acknowledge Treaty 4 as their homeland.

We respect and honour the Treaties that were made on all territories. We acknowledge the harms and mistakes of the past, and we are committed to moving forward in partnership with Indigenous Nations in the spirit of reconciliation and collaboration. We are all treaty people.

As the phrase “We are all treaty people” implies, both Indigenous and non-Indigenous people in Saskatchewan are part of the treaty. Acknowledging territory and treaty shows recognition of and respect for Indigenous Peoples. It is recognition of their presence in our past, our present and in our future. Recognition and respect are essential elements of establishing and maintaining healthy, reciprocal relationships that are the key to reconciliation.

2.1 AGRICULTURE

Weyburn stands as a beacon of agricultural excellence. As one of North America's LARGEST INLAND GRAIN GATHERING POINTS, Weyburn plays a vital role in sustaining the world's food supply. Handling over 3 million tonnes of grain annually, Weyburn serves as a cornerstone of agriculture production in our region. Recent expansions, such as construction of state-of-the-art fertilizer sheds, underscore our commitment to growth and efficiency. With strategic railway connections through CPKC, Weyburn seamlessly connects our top-quality products to markets worldwide, ensuring our agricultural legacy thrives for generations to come.

SASKATCHEWAN BUSINESS INCENTIVES

INNOVATION: Saskatchewan has extensive research infrastructure, with a particular focus on agriculture, agricultural biotechnology, energy, and carbon capture and storage.

VITERRA

Our world-leading, fully integrated agriculture network connects producers and consumers to supply sustainable, traceable and quality-controlled agricultural products. In Canada, Viterra is a leading marketer and handler of grains, oilseeds, pulses, and cotton. They take great pride in partnering with growers in Canada, and the US to connect them to markets in 70 countries. Viterra's Canadian business is headquartered in Regina, Saskatchewan, with industry-leading marketing, facilities, logistics, and processing capabilities, including a large global network of marketing offices in 38 countries. Their people are grain specialists. They deliver value to growers with their unrivaled marketing reach, competitive pricing and flexibility, and accountability on execution of contracts.

For over 100 years, Viterra has earned growers' business with their expertise and commitment to service that is tailored to the needs of each customer. They provide unrivaled global market insight, as well as the practical tools growers need, including Viterra risk management products, market research, live pricing and proprietary technology. They operate in one of the most important industries in the world, and are fully committed to working with the farmers, end-users and industry partners to ensure that the future of agriculture remains bright.

2.2 MANUFACTURING

Manufacturing plays a key role in Saskatchewan, making up 6.9% of the provincial GDP. In 2023 manufacturing shipments totals $25.6 billion. Located in the heart of the Canadian Prairies, Saskatchewan is well positioned to meet the needs of numerous growing sectors within manufacturing. As well, the province's central location in North America, Saskatchewan manufacturers have access to markets to 270 million people within a one or two day drive. Weyburn is home to globally recognized manufacturers who export their products to varied customers around the world. From commercial concrete and steel fabrication to industrial cable, our local manufacturers use innovative and breakthrough technologies to meet their customer's growing needs.

SASKATCHEWAN BUSINESS INCENTIVES

ECONOMIC SECTORS: The province has created a favourable business environment for manufacturers with many competitive advantages including: low corporate income tax for manufacturers and processors at 10%, as well as provincial tax exemptions for eligible machinery, equipment, and materials

INFRASTRUCTURE: A solid infrastructure of road, rail, and air transport make Saskatchewan an ideal location for both manufacturing and distribution

TAXES AND INCENTIVES: Manufacturers and processors that establish facilities in Saskatchewan are eligible for a 6% refundable investment tax credit on capital purchases, and direct agents used in the manufacturing process are exempt from the provincial sales tax

SOURIS VALLEY INDUSTRIES (SVI)

Since 1977, Souris Valley Industries (SVI) has been a trusted provider of high-quality precast concrete solutions, supporting infrastructure projects across Saskatchewan and beyond. As a locally owned company, we manufacture CSA-certified tanks, manholes, concrete pipes, box culverts, prestressed elements, and bridge components that meet the highest industry standards. Operating from our controlled production facility, we ensure precision, consistency, and efficiency, reducing installation time and keeping projects on schedule. Our precast box culverts offer a practical, durable, and cost-effective alternative to traditional bridge structures, enhancing water management and transportation networks across the region. SVI partners with municipalities, engineers, contractors, and a wide range of industries to deliver tailored, cost-effective solutions that withstand harsh environmental conditions. Whether for large-scale infrastructure or specialized applications, our products support durable, long-lasting construction. With nearly 50 years of expertise, continuous investment in technology, and a strong focus on customer relationships, we remain committed to providing reliable precast solutions that serve communities and businesses for generations.

2.3 OIL & GAS

Weyburn has been established as a central figure for the upstream oil industry in the province. Through investment in pioneering research projects and leading edge oil extraction technology, Weyburn based companies continue to advance innovation and development in the industry. The city's youthful professional culture and educated workforce has made Weyburn an attractive locale for many national and local industry headquarters and a strategic location for industry service.

Bakken Formation: Weyburn sits geographically atop the Bakken Oil Formation, which is one of the most prolific oil producing patches in the world. With new technology driving the industry, these once unattainable oil reserves are now fueling economic growth in the region. Weyburn based companies are some of the largest investors in the Canadian Bakken play.

Innovation: Carbon dioxide capture and storage is considered a critical technology to reduce world greenhouse gas emissions. Currently in the Weyburn region there are two commercial carbon dioxide enhanced oil recovery projects operated by Whitecap Resources and by Cardinal Energy Ltd.; the projects involve the capture of carbon dioxide and subsequent injection into underground rock formations. Most recent innovation in the Weyburn region is an established alternate renewable energy resource. DEEP is a Saskatchewan privately held corporation with a mission to develop SK's geothermal resources for power generation. They will harness high-quality geothermal resources with existing drilling and power generation technologies to establish a long-term renewable baseload power supply.

SASKATCHEWAN BUSINESS INCENTIVES

INNOVATION: Saskatchewan has extensive research infrastructure, with a particular focus on agriculture, agricultural biotechnology, energy, and carbon capture and storage.

WHITECAP RESOURCES INC.

Whitecap Resources "Weyburn Unit" property is located south of Weyburn, Saskatchewan. The Weyburn property is the largest Carbon Capture & Utilization Storage "CCUS" project in the world which underpins why Whitecap has one of the lowest emissions intensities in the world along with our commitment to continue to emphasize environmental sustainability as a core value. This internationally recognized, world class project has safely captured over 36 million tonnes of CO<sub>2</sub>. Since 2019, we have stored 2.0 million tonnes of CO<sub>2</sub> per year in Weyburn which means we sequester more CO<sub>2</sub> than our yearly corporate emissions (direct and indirect), making us a carbon negative company. Whitecap has a 65.3% operated working interest in the Weyburn Unit which produces primarily light oil. The Weyburn Unit has been in existence since the 1950's when it was discovered. Waterflood operations commenced in the 1960's with a world class CO<sub>2</sub> enhanced oil recovery "EOR" development commencing in 2000. Whitecap's expertise in CO<sub>2</sub> EOR and sequestration provides the foundation to continue to drive down Whitecap's GHG emissions intensity.

The economy in Saskatchewan has all the right elements for creating long term profitability for business. Weyburn's economic fundamentals such as population growth, median age, employment growth, high income rates and a strong housing market have all contributed to the ideal investment conditions currently existing in the city.
