NEW RESIDENTS GUIDE

Welcome to Weyburn

#WhyNotWeyburn

Mayor Jeff Richards

Welcome to Weyburn, the Opportunity City!

As you settle into our community, you'll find a city rich in history, natural beauty, and warm hospitality. From scenic trails along the Souris River to cultural landmarks like Heritage Village, Weyburn offers a welcoming environment where you can thrive. Our city is a community for all, where new residents and longtime locals alike can grow through opportunity. We are proud to combine small-town charm with big-city amenities, making Weyburn an ideal place to live, work, and raise a family. On behalf of the City of Weyburn, I welcome you to your new home and encourage you to explore all that our community has to offer.

Reeve James "Bud" Grohn

Welcome to the "Opportunity City".

Our community roots are richly grounded in family business, commercial businesses, entrepreneurship, agriculture, and oil. Weyburn thrives on the quaintness of the small town feel when raising family, but with the big city amenities. We have the option to raise our families in the City or on the rural land of living skies. With it only being an hour drive to Regina our capital of the province, the American border, and Moose Mountain provincial park. Weyburn is well situated for family, work, and entertainment purposes. We have multiple educational options with the Southeast College, three enjoyable elementary schools, one recently built K-6 school with attached recreational facility being accessible to all ages for entertainment and learning, while also having a large thriving homeschooling community. Weyburn is full of options and opportunities for individuals of all ages. The RM invites out of the box innovation, with enriching ideas in business, and recreation. Building our community to be more prosperous, and unified. I extend a warm welcome to the exceptional area I call home.
